David Kevin Lamb, Organist, is a graduate of the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music where he was an associate instructor in Choral Conducting, serving as the Assistant Conductor of the Indiana University Singing Hoosiers, and the Associate Conductor of the IU All-Campus Choruses. Following twenty years of public school teaching at the High Schools in Charlestown and Seymour, Indiana, Dr. Lamb is currently an adjunct instructor of music at Indiana University/Purdue University at Columbus

Dr. Lamb is the Director of Music for Trinity United Methodist Church in New Albany, and he has presented guest organ concerts in Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin., and Washington, D.C. Concert engagements in Europe have included presentations in Austria, France, Germany, Great Britain, and Italy.

Dr. Lamb's professional experiences include work in the realms of concert organist, choral director, church organist, singer, voice teacher, pit player, music administrator, public school teacher, college instructor, workshop leader, clinician, and recording artist. As a volunteer on the Jacobs School of Music Alumni Board at Indiana University, David Lamb was the founder and the first president of the Indiana Organists United, an alumni affiliate of the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music Alumni Association. He continues to serve on the IOU Alumni Board with the title of Honorary Founding President.

As an active member of the American Guild of Organists, Dr. Lamb has served in leadership positions in both the Louisville and Southern Indiana Chapters and, following a successful term as the Councillor for the Great Lakes Region (Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio, Illinois & Michigan), he was elected to three consecutive terms on the AGO National Council as the Councillor for Membership.
